

THE SCHOOL OF WRITING AT CMU

MAY 10-14, 2010

APPLICATION FORM

Deadline: March 1st, 2010

Application Process

Application to the School of Writing at CMU is limited to 40 people – 10 each in Fiction, Poetry, Life Writing, and Writing for Children & Young Adults. In order to qualify for the School you must submit a portfolio of your writing (with the exception of Life Writing, for which no portfolio is necessary). Your submission will be evaluated by an admissions committee; if you are accepted your submission will be forwarded to the instructors. If you are accepted you must bring 10 copies of your submission to the School for use in workshops. To apply for the School you should be 18 years of age or older.

To apply for the School fill out the application form and send, with 2 copies of your portfolio, to CMU. You will be informed by March 19th if you have been accepted. At that time, you will be asked to send a cheque for tuition, plus any accommodation or meal expenses, to CMU by March 31st. A full refund, less a $50.00 administration fee, will be issued if the School receives written notice of withdrawal by April 23rd, 2010. If the School receives notice of withdrawal between April 23rd and May 3rd, 2010, $200.00 will be withheld. No refund will be issued after May 3rd.

Bursaries

A limited number of bursaries of $100.00 per person are available. Applicants for bursaries must provide a confidential statement explaining their financial situation. The bursary amount, if awarded, will be deducted from your payment. Bursary recipients will be informed of this when they receive their acceptance into the school.

If you are a current CMU student, or will graduate this spring, you may qualify for a tuition reduction of $200.00 in the following courses: Fiction, Poetry, and Writing for Children & Young Adults. This will be available to a limited number of applicants. In order to apply for this reduced rate state on your application form that you are a CMU student.

Students may be eligible for grants from provincial arts councils. Check the School of Writing at CMU website for more information.
