

CMU Report to the Community

Vision and generosity are threaded through this Report to the Community—a window into enrolment, academic programming, church and community engagement, faculty research, and financial data for the 2018-2019 year. CMU is grateful for the vision and generosity of many friends, alumni, donors, and church communities that undergird and entrust CMU with its mission and vision. Your vision shapes the experience of students who are being equipped for lives of service, leadership, and reconciliation in church and society. Thank you!

Total Student Headcount

The number of enrolled students

CMU Main Campus includes students in undergraduate and graduate degree programs and those on Outtatown. From 2016-17 to 2018-19, students enrolled in CMU degree programs increased by 52 FTE and 186 FCE.

MSC Campus includes UWinnipeg students studying at CMU's program centre, Menno Simons College. Many students at MSC take 1 or 2 courses (ie. 18-19 Headcount of 874 equates to 288 FTE).

Student Church Affiliation reflects broad engagement of students from a wide diversity of church backgrounds. CMU is deeply grateful for opportunities to learn together.

Student Church Affiliation

Service and Work-integrated Learning

CMU is unique among Canadian universities in that every degree student, regardless of program, completes a practicum, a supervised off-campus work experience. In 2018-2019, 74 students completed a practicum (73% completed an intensive four-month practicum while 27% completed their practicum through the academic year).

Students chose placements in a diverse range of congregations, church-connected, and other agencies and with the Autism Learning Centre, Bear Clan Patrol, Camps, Health Sciences Centre, Buhler Industries, Canadian Foodgrains Bank, CancerCare Manitoba, Schools, CJOB and CTV, Deer Lodge Centre Spiritual Care, Fisheries and Oceans Canada, Friedenshaus (Germany), Greentech Environmental Canada, Immigrant & Refugee Center, North Forge Technology Exchange, Siloam Mission, Corymeela Reconciliation Center in N. Ireland...

The CMU Fund is critical to the Academic experience of students and the degrees they earn.

Engaging Community and Church

The 2019 CMU PAX Award was given to Rudy Wiebe for a lifetime of stories exploring complex dimensions of love, peace and forgiveness, demonstrating a gift of imagination rooted in communities of faith.

The Redekop family from British Columbia was recognized for the significance of their support of CMU's Redekop School of Business.

CMU's Face2Face series included three important community conversations:

Whose Neighbour Am I? Treaty One and Mennonite Privilegium

Whose Neighbour Am I? Newcomers in Canada

A Matter of Life and Death: Exploring Death in our Culture

Leonard Ratzlaff (MBBC '70), Brian Dyck (CMBC '96), Christine Ens (CMBC '96), and Heather Unger (Concord '02) were recognized with Distinguished Alumni Awards.

Faculty offered CMU Portables in 23 congregations, from British Columbia to Ontario.

115 Pastors from across the prairies attended the ReNew: Resourcing Pastors for Ministry Conference, focused on Death, Funerals, and the Christian Hope with keynote speaker Dr. Thomas Long.

195 people participated in Xplore +55 classes in Winnipeg and in Winkler.

100 people attended #ChurchTooManitoba, responding to sexual misconduct in the life of the church.

Faculty Writing and Research

In addition to their teaching, faculty are all involved in a variety of research and writing projects. Below a small sample of the diverse areas that faculty are exploring. Their research is focused on ...

... the convergence of Christian theology and communication practice, particularly the reality of religiously-informed language in everyday talk (David Balzer, Assistant Professor of Communications and Media)

... how gender issues influence the self-identity of women conductors (Janet Brenneman, Associate Professor of Music)

... the place of faith confessions among Anabaptist Christians (Karl Koop, Professor of History and Theology)

... the realities of financial exclusion and ways to build financial resilience among vulnerable communities in Canada and internationally (Jerry Buckland, Professor of International Development Studies)

... older adult care continuums, focusing on persons with dementia in rural and remote communities who transition from hospital to community based settings (Heather Campbell-Enns, Assistant Professor of Psychology)

... collegiate basketball seen through the lens of music and dance, exploring how sound and movement connect people across differences (Jonathan Dueck, Vice President Academic and Academic Dean)

... the history and impact of American evangelicalism in Western Canada (Brian Froese, Associate Professor of History)

... issues of Indigenous reconciliation, including the history of relations between Canadian Mennonites and Indigenous peoples (Neil Funk-Unrau, Associate Professor of Conflict Resolution Studies)

... a commentary on James for the Believers Church Bible Commentary series (Sheila Klassen-Wiebe, Associate Professor of New Testament)

... the impact of food insecurity among rural Panamanian subsistence farmers (Rachel Krause, Assistant Professor of Biology)

... peace education skills for the creation of social change in communities in the Philippines and Southeast Asia (Wendy Kroeker, Assistant Professor, Peace and Conflict Transformation Studies)

... cancer, involving undergraduate students, by analyzing how tissues grow and develop in fruit flies (Nicolas Malagon, Assistant Professor of Biology)

... regional and demographic factors that influence the economy, from the consumption of individual goods and services to the GDP as a whole (Craig Martin, Assistant Professor of Business)

... Mennonite Brethren spirituality as a means to reflect on healthy appropriation of spiritual practices between Christian denominations and traditions (Andrew Dyck, Assistant Professor of Christian Spirituality and Pastoral Ministry)

... conflict resolution practices in Southeast Asia—Laos, Thailand, Vietnam—along with the resettlement experiences of refugees in Canada (Stephanie Stobbe, Associate Professor of Conflict Resolution Studies)

... composing music for 'Li Keur: Riel's Heart of the North', an opera commissioned by the Canada Council, premiering with the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra in 2020 (Neil Weisensel, Adjunct Professor of Music)

... the distinctive practices of faith-based NGOs working in Haiti and how they differ (Ray Vander Zaag, Associate Professor of International Development Studies)

... the plays of the 10th Century German dramatist Hrotsvit of Gandersheim, exploring virtues of faith, hope, and love, and our own questions of knowledge (Chris Huebner, Associate Professor of Theology and Philosophy)

Finances and Giving

The 2018–19 financial year ended with a small surplus—the 19th consecutive year of stable fiscal management—and another modest increase in the total number of donors who contributed to CMU, including the number of donors who gave $1,000 or more. In addition to support of the CMU Fund, donors made substantive contributions to capital projects, endowments, and other funds. CMU is deeply grateful.
