

Canadian Mennonite University (CMU) invites applications for a sessional instructor position to teach in the area of Music.

Job Type: Contracted Sessional Instructor (Ensemble Director)

Course Name: MUSC-X780 Rock Band

Academic Area: Music

Semester: Fall_Winter

Credit Hours: 2

Modality: In-Person

Timetable: TBD (currently scheduled Mondays 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM)

Qualifications:

- Familiarity with the rock and related genres of popular music (including, but not limited to R&B, Soul, Pop, Alternative, etc.) and ability to guide appropriate repertoire selection.
- Significant experience leading a band in rehearsal and performance
- Familiarity with standard rock instruments (guitar, bass, keyboards, vocals, backup vocals), and ability to coach players of all instruments
- Ability to produce lead sheets/charts for players
- Ability to create arrangements of original student songs

Remuneration: $3837.20, inclusive of 6% vacation pay

Responsibilities:

- Repertoire selection, ensemble rehearsals (1.25 hours per week for 24 weeks)
- Concert preparation and two performances annually (Christmas and Spring Concerts)
- Evaluation of registered students (pass-fail)

Applications Due: Position open until filled

CMU is a liberal arts university rooted in Mennonite traditions, chartered by the Province, and a member of Universities Canada. Applicants from all backgrounds are welcome.

Interested applicants should submit a CV by email with a brief note indicating interest and any relevant context in the body of the email in lieu of a cover letter. Inquiries and applications may be sent by email to Greg Wiebe, Executive Coordinator for the Vice-President Academic, gwiebe@cmu.ca. Please note that CVs will be shared with the chair of Music.